FROM OUR DIRECTOR :

Well, what we have all been waiting for has finally started coming our way... fall and cooler weather! Are you ready to start doing some Sunday afternoon rides? If so, let's get going. It's not too soon to start planning our rides for 2007. How about some volunteers to start the planning? Speak up at the next few meetings or be ready to be volunteered.

We also have Christmas approaching at a rapid pace. Jerry & Sally Nelson have graciously offered their house to host our first Chapter Christmas party. I'm sure Sally will appreciate all the help she can get for this, so please contact Sally if you can be of any assistance to her. And speaking of Christmas, there will be a lot of toy runs happening. Let's plan on which ones we want to attend as a Chapter. If anyone can find a list, that would be helpful.

Everyone please try your best to attend the Chapter gathering on the 12th. There will be a photographer there to take a group photo.

Gold Book To Be Refocused Back To Its "Service Directory" Roots

Phoenix, Arizona (July 26, 2006) — One of the most popular benefits provided to the Members of The Gold Wing Road Riders Association (GWRRA)—the Gold Book Membership Directory—will return to its former status as a Service Directory in 2007. Initially conceived as a listing of Members who were willing to offer assistance to their fellow Members, the Gold Book expanded, by 1995, to include a nearly complete listing of the Association's total membership.

The 2007 edition of the Gold Book will return the book to its Service Directory status, and will, therefore, contain the names, telephone numbers and service offerings of all Members whose records are complete. Members who do not have service offering codes or phone numbers indicated in their membership records at the Home Office, or who have indicated they wish not to be included in the Gold Book, will not be included.

"One of the bedrock assumptions of GWRRA has been that our Members make every effort to help each other in times of need," says GWRRA's Executive Director Don Brock. "At a minimum, we believe every Member should be willing to accept non-collect telephone calls (Service Offering Code B) from fellow Members, and should designate that willingness in the Gold Book with an active phone number," says Brock. "If, for privacy, security or other reasons, you do not wish to be disturbed or contacted, why include your name in the Gold Book?"

"It has never been easier to make sure your membership records at the Home Office are up to date," says Brock. "Use computer access via www.gwrro.org to change or update your personal records yourself 24 hours a day, seven days a week, or submit changes via e-mail to customerservice@gwrro.org. Not computer savvy? Call our Member Services department in Phoenix during business hours."

"If you want to be listed in the 2007 Gold Book, please check the status of your records before our November 1, 2006, deadline to ensure your listing is correct," Brock says.

The annual Gold Book directory is compiled by the Home Office staff in December and is printed in early January for mail distribution with the March issue of Wing World in early February.

GWRRA, whose motto is "Friends for Fun, Safety and Knowledge," is a not-for-profit organization with over 82,000 Members in 50 countries, and 4,000 volunteer leaders providing rider education and social structure, along with organizing events, rallies, rides and meetings throughout the year. Visit GWRRA's Web sites: www.gwrro.org and www.wing-ding.org or call (800) 843-9460 or (623) 581-2500

One of the topics I want to cover at the meeting is a slow race rodeo one Saturday or Sunday. This will definitely test your "slow riding" acumen and hopefully, be fun to boot. Those of you with a trike can borrow my bike.

If you have any ideas, suggestions or criticisms for chapter rides, events, parties or any type of get-togethers, bring them with you to the Chapter gathering.

Hoping to see everyone there...
